

Miss K.N. Brockway

Founder - Principal

1923-1953

Miss. Kathleen Nora Brockway, Founder and Principal of St. Christopher's College of Education for nearly thirty years, passed away peacefully on December 29, 1980 in England. She was buried at Stratford-on-Avon on January 8, 1981.

Miss. Kathleen Nora Brockway is always remembered for her long, devoted and selfless service to the cause of Christian Education in India and for her readiness to give her service to any cause that would benefit humanity.